

Lyne Laforme

Level 3 Coach – performance

Western

Clinic February 7- 8

80/day student/staff, $100 /day off campus

Lyne LaForme is a coach level 3 - performance. She trains horses and coach people in western pleasure, trail, showmanship and horsemanship for Paint horse and QH shows. Her students have finished champion or reserve champion for the past 10 years.

Lyne is also a NRHA judge and she trains reining horses. She has students who have good results also, but the most important they enjoy what they are doing, they have fun.

Lyne has been coaching for 27 years and in the past 10 years she has given clinics in France, Switzerland and Belgium twice a year.

Lyne is a Quebec Master Course conductor of the coaching committee and she is working with Equine Canada to develop the coaching program.

She also works with the judge's committee in Quebec and France.

More information and registration forms available at www.kemptville.uoguelph.ca, or contact Maureen Venables at 613 258-8336 x61619, mvenable@kemptvillec.uoguelph.ca.

John Kersley Hunter/Jumper/Eventer Clinic March 28-29

$80/day student/staff, $100 /day off campus

John Kersley was born in England where he was brought up with Pony Club and he competed during the 1970's in 3 Day Eventing, winning the Badminton 3 Day Event and competing at an international level. He was the alternate for the British Team in the 1976 Olympics. He came to Canada in 1978 to continue training two horses that went on to win gold for Canada in Kentucky at the World Championships.

Since coming to Canada John has trained many horses and riders in show jumping, hunter and 3 Day Eventing. He has won, as a rider, many Grand Prix Events and has coached Champion Hunters at The Royal.

More information and registration forms available at www.kemptville.uoguelph.ca, or contact Maureen Venables at 613 258-8336 x61619, mvenable@kemptvillec.uoguelph.ca.